Mission

Encinitas Ballet Academy & Arts Center (EBAAC) is a non-profit corporation that operates a ballet school in the city of Encinitas, conducts public ballet performances, educates public and private schools and the larger community on the subject of classical ballet, and seeks to increase the community's appreciation of ballet as an art form.

Encinitas Ballet Academy & Arts Center operates a teaching center of ballet that delivers and promotes the highest standards of technique, integrity and professionalism for young dancers, while cultivating in these dancers the qualities of self-confidence, style, artistic expression and enjoyment and love of ballet. Encinitas Ballet Academy & Arts Center seeks to promote these high standards while allowing for student participation of all ages, levels and reasons for studying ballet, including mutually exclusive or inclusive goals of seeking a career in dance, performing on stage, the enjoyment of ballet or physical/mental self-improvement.

EBAAC is committed to the production of high quality ballet performances, with an emphasis on the participation of EBAAC students, supplemented by accomplished guest artists, with the end goal of developing dancer talent, while increasing the public's appreciation of excellent ballet. EBAAC education efforts extend to providing ballet performances and instruction to public and private schools; providing scholarships to ballet students based on merit and need; and engaging in outreach to locate students from communities or families that might not otherwise have exposure to ballet.

Philosophy/Uniqueness

Encinitas Ballet Academy & Arts Center has an uncompromising commitment to excellence in arts education, based in classical ballet tradition. EBAAC is distinguished by its focus on dance as a fine art form, contrasted with theatrics or mime.

School artistic directors/ head teachers/choreographers, Sayat Asatryan and Olga Tchekachova, are both Russian-classically trained artistic directors/teachers/choreographers. This outstanding team has a unique blend of impeccable technique instruction, with a gift for cultivating artistic expression, delivered in a consistently positive style.
