ATTENDANCE

Students are required to be prompt and attend all their scheduled classes. Any student who must miss class is required to call the School Office prior to class time. Students suffering from minor injuries may observe class. Students who arrive more than 15 minutes late may be asked to sit and observe class. For group lessons, if there is only one student present, the lesson will run as a private class for ½ hour only (technique) and 15 min (pointe)

Performance company warm-up class (es) on stage, or in the studio, and any classes used to set performance choreography as well as rehearsals on stage are considered class time. This learning experience is a part of each student's curriculum.

MAKE-UPS

Make-up classes are permitted for missed classes only for health emergency, Holydays, or two weeks in advance with written notice. Please inform the teacher at the beginning of class that it is a make-up.

RESPECT FOR TEACHERS/DISCIPLINING

Initial Here

Students and parents treat the teachers, staff and other students and parents with respect and courtesy.

- Encinitas Ballet Academy and Arts Center's students and parents respect the property of the school and the personal property of others.
- * Parents should not interrupt class or rehearsals.
- *Students and parents may not take photos and videos during class or rehearsal without explicit permission.
- *Foul language is prohibited. In general, older kids and adults should set a good example for the younger kids.
- * Discipline for misconduct will be handled with a letter from the teacher to the student's parent. With the third incident of misconduct, the letter will inform the parent of the student's dismissal from the school.

DRESS CODE

The appearance of students studying at Encinitas Ballet Academy and Arts Center is very important. A dress code helps the teacher view students without unnecessary distraction, so that purity of line in every movement is easily seen. It is recommended that all students, except adults, adhere to the required dress code for class.

FOOD & DRINK

No food or drink with the exception of water is allowed in the school premises. Exceptions are made for advanced dancers during long rehearsal periods.
